

Oilseed processors comment on CP Rail work stoppage

Winnipeg - May 30, 2018

As of 22:00 on May 29, 2018, a strike is in effect between Canadian Pacific Railway (CP) and one of its unions.

As a result of this work stoppage, members of the Canadian Oilseed Processors Association (COPA) will be forced to curb production and unfortunately experience preventions and delays in executing customer contracts.

COPA members regret the situation which will be detrimental to processors, farmers and world-wide customers. Given the urgency of the situation, COPA is repeating its call for the government to take early action to bring a swift resolution to this work stoppage.
